arms must also interchange with one another in the same manner.

The materials for these arms must be of the very best quality, and no malieable iron parts will be affored to be used. All the articles must be subject to the inspection prescribed by the Ordnance Regulations, and must be boxed, ready for transportation, at the expense of the contractors, in such manner as may be directed. Inspections will be made at the factories in lots of not less than 1,000 cach.

Proposals will state the name of the establishment making the offer, the number and date of the first delivery, and rate of delivery monthly thereafter. Failure to make a delivery at a specified time, or any attempt to introduce malicable from or other inferior material into the work, will subject the whole number of arms contracted for to forfeiture, at the option of the department.

The department reserves to itself the right to reject any bid, and will consider none made through any agent, broker, or party other than the regular manufactures.

Froposals of the defense Washington, D. C., "and will be endersed "Proposals for Muskels," or ritles, sabres, &c., as the case may be.

DROPOSALS FOR THE SUPPLY OF FRESH BEEF for use of United States troops stationed at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, for one year, commencing, Jone 1, 1852, will be received at the office of the A. A. C. S., Fort Columbus, New York Harbor, until 12 o'clock M., on the 21st instant. The beef is to be of first quality, in equal proportions of fore and hind quarters, necks and shanks excluded, and to be delivered at Fort Columbus at such times and in such quantities as may be required. Two securities, of five thousand dollars each, will be sequired for the faithful full instant of the centract. Proposals will be addressed to First Lientensant B. B. Childs, Sixth Infantry, office of A. A. C. S., Fort Columbus, New York Harbor, and be endorsed "Proposals for the supply of fresh beef." The undersigned reserves the right to reject any or all bids which he deems extravasant, or doubtful senarities.
